

Daily Bible Readings for November

This month's readings close out the season known as common or ordinary time and usher in the new church year with Advent. There are a few themes to watch for as we go through the month. The readings often point us to the reign of Christ as the Eternal King enthroned in Heaven and seated at God's right hand. That's because the church year centers around the person of Christ. It begins with his promised coming and birth as a baby in Bethlehem and it reaches its summit at the end of time as Christ is crowned King of all Creation.

Our readings list comes from the Revised Common Lectionary recommended for use by the United Church of Christ and by many other Christian denominations in North America. The daily Bible readings are clustered into weeks with Sunday being the center of each week. The readings for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of each week orient our prayer and preparation for the Sunday lessons; the readings for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday reflect on Sunday's lessons.

In the worship of Grace Church we normally read only two lessons. However, many Sundays the Psalm for the day is also incorporated into the service as a Call to Worship or prayer.
